

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 27, 1995

SUBJECT: HB 115 - SB 517

This bill, if enacted, will provide for a review panel to convene within two weeks of imposition of a death sentence for the purpose of reviewing the trial transcript of death sentence to expedite the appellate process.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures for attorneys' fees and expedited production of transcripts. The amount of such increase cannot be reasonably determined but is estimated to exceed $100,000.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
